

GOLD AWARD in 21st National Conference on e-Governance
Under Performance in Citizen-centric Service Delivery Awarded to

SAMRAKSHANE

Crop Insurance Application developed by NIC - Karnataka State Center

Held on 26 and 27 February, 2018 @ Hyderabad International Convention Centre (HICC)

National Informatics Centre, Karnataka state unit has designed, developed and successfully rolled out end-to-end state of art e-Governance solution named SAMRAKSHANE (meaning PROTECTION in English) for Agriculture and Horticulture department to handle crop insurance activities under both PMFBY & MWBCIS with an objectives to meet- Transparent and farmer friendly system for enrollment, registering claims, compensation calculation and payment of compensation to farmers under the Crop Insurance Scheme (both PMFBY & MWBCIS), Disbursement of payment of claims within two to three month from the harvest date and credit the same directly into the farmers Aadhaar linked account under intimation to them, Transparent conduct of crop cutting experiment involving all stakeholders and publishing the videos and photos of the conducted experiments, to prevent unscrupulous people to misuse the scheme by registering request on others land or by registering multiple time on their own land or by registering for crop which they have not grown.

Project Members (L-R)– A sureshbabu (PSA), JR Kumar (PSA), K Satish Shankar (PSA) , Shri. B. Vinaya (SIO), N R Samartharam (TD and Project Head), Pooja Satawkar (SA)

Receiving award at the venue with the department and NIC official lead by Shri. Vijay Baskar IAS – ACS-GoK and Shri Rajeev Chawla IAS – ACS-GoK

